D. The Distinctive Doctrine which form the Theological Basil upon which our Denomination uxu Organized. Dear Brethren: --With much hesitation and self-distrust, I accepted the part assigned me by the committee appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare a programme for the celebration of the semi-centennial General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The part assigned me was to pronounce a discourse upon the doctrines which impelled the founders of this Church to organize a distinctive denomination. Tn preparing such a discourse I found it impossible, within the limit of the time prescribed, after condensing the subject and cutting off all extraneous matter, to present anything like a full discussion of these doctrines. 1 shall, however, attempt, by Divine assistance, to set forth these doctrines in close connection with some of those taught in the Westminster Confession of...
