Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .all of these laborers of the road into such an adhesive society that this adhesion would interlace all of their interest, and nothing could interrupt their plans. When they sought to interrogate these officers, an officer of the law interjected his objection so as to intercept this debut. This was an interlude that caused an interchange of thoughts and in the time when they were to intercommune with the officers, the laborers decided to decamp and this descent subdued their intermittant adulation of the laborer whom the officers seemed not to adore. See page 94 for the shl stroke. See page 119 for the thr stroke. Who does not delight in the early history of our country? In those days when our fore-fathers were almost destitute by the devise of the Indians who devastated their homes. For example, deliberate on the days of our devout John Smith. Despite the fact that some despised and sought to depress him and even designed his imprisonment, persecuted by despots, defamed and derided by the degenerate, he landed a prisoner in the colony of which John Smith became president. While exploring the country he denoted his friendship for the Indians. His people depended on him and he had them build forts for their defense. In an expedition up the Chickahominy he was detained by the Indians. Without delay, he devised a plan for escape by devoting his time to interesting his persecutors and was decisive in depositing a letter into...
