Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.David Paul began piano lessons at age 6, violin at age 8. He studied both instruments privately, then focused on violin through high school. After High School, David took two more years of piano at Minnesota's prestigious St. Olaf College, for a total of ten years training on piano, practicing 30 minutes 5 days a week through 9th grade. He also practiced violin, starting with 30-45 minutes a day when younger, then stepping up to 60 to 90 minutes a day in high school, then to 2 to 3 hours a day in college and 4 to 5 hours a day in graduate school at Rice University in Texas. Boy does he wish he'd known The Creative Music Method back then. As a sophomore at his Nebraska high school, David's ability on the violin earned him the honor of becoming the youngest musician to play that instrument with the University of Nebraska orchestra. At age 16 he won his first solo music competition, and performed with a regional orchestra as his reward. He attended All...
