Excerpt: . . . instruction the students moved to another classroom to work with real FBCB2 hardware (green boxes) to learn equipment inspection and pre-combat checks. The desktop computers use a mouse and keyboard for input, while the actual systems use a touch screen and track ball-like device. Although white boxes have different input methods than green boxes, Soldiers report no problem switching between input devices. Figure 1. Example of Force XXI Battle Command Brigade and Below (FBCB2) display. Most of the blocks of instruction are followed by a practical exercise where the students are able to practice what they learned. The blocks of instruction and exercises follow a natural progression including system startup, pre-combat checks, movement, assembly area operations, and actions on the objective. The training assumes the Soldiers have a basic tactical knowledge including familiarity with reports, map symbology, and battlefield graphics. It also assumes a basic knowledge of computer...
