This volume contains all the Regulations at present in force relative to the occupation of the Land. A most comprehensive fund of information. Refer to a Government Order, issued in Sydney in 1831, by which the Regulations then in force respecting grants of lands in New South Wales were withdrawn, and others promulgated. Pre-emptive right to be allowed to present holders of runs. Buns in. proximity to towns stopping settlement, to be resumed. Describes the quality of the land on the different rivers. Objects to the auction system of selling land. A most amusing little book. The various legends of the Colony, mostly relating to remarkable convicts, are founded upon truth, though treated in the form of fiction. Belates to the social and political state of the Colony. An Historical and Statistical Account...
