The different interests and localities represented; the various opinions held and views advocated, made the end sought one of extreme delicacy and difficulty, and it is thought that such a record as is here given is but just to all concerned. Nothing of any significance or importance is omitted from the record of the regular minutes of each session. It has been the problem of more than one state to find a solution that would unify our educational interests. The multiplicity of schools and colleges has divided our strength, and the only relief in older states has been that which time has...
