Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Heart is a focal point of life in both physical and spiritual. Every living creature has a life line till the heart is alive. Heart is a source of emotion and energy. It is the heart that can conquer the miles, mountains, deserts and sea only for beloved one. There are hundred and thousand elements which can cause for a true relationship between two hearts. Heart always respond good things with love and affection and the vice versa. In the world hundred and thousand creatures including human are available for love and care but human is to care for all. If the heart has positive thoughts and thinks always good for all this is the heart most successful, satisfied and precious. However for love and affection one thing is very important that is care. Care is the only which can make the foe to friend and even animals may become the best friend. The beams of care are like a sun light which covers the object directly from the all direction. The care has permanent and immediate effects. It is the care which can show the density of love. Care develops the emotions and emotions are actually the essence of relations. It is the care only which can prolong the survival on the earth. Those who care others actually they want to get care of others. Similarly it is with heart, if we will care our heart in both way physically and spiritually it will give you a warranty for a long lasting pleasure and satisfaction and of course long stay on the earth too. Heart is only the most precious gift on the earth. All senses of...
