In this fire-proof building erected at a cost, including the ground, of 334, 150. 65, and on this occasion formally opened for the use of the citizens of the city, The Minnesota Academy Of Natural Sciences has been assigned rooms. On the third floor the Academy has an elegant room for its meetings and spacious and equally elegant rooms for the display of its collections which will be daily open to the public. The Library Board had generously furnished sufficient cases for the display of the collections of the Academy and the secretary and several members had devoted their time for many evenings to cataloguing and arranging the material so that on the occasion of the opening the extent and condition of the museum were very fairly presented to the public. The...
