Men in festal attire are seated at a long table. The table is richly laid. The men have just finished their feast, but cups of wine are still before them, from which one or another sips at times. The sun is near his setting and soft light irradiates the faces. The center of the group is a handsome young man, with flowing curls of soft brown hair. But his face is bronzed and haggard, and it bears marks of dissolute life. He lifts his bowed head and seems about to speak, when suddenly the sound of singing outside is heard. It comes from a company of young men and maidens returning from the vineyards, which are dimly seen across a narrow valley, softening the sloping hillside with their trellises of green. It is the season of the vintage, and the air is sweet with the scent of grapes, and mellowing apples and pomegranates....
