Our present law is clearly constitutional. Moreover we can go further if we see fit. We have the power to prevent the manufacture of imitation butter within the State; we have the power to prevent the sale of imitation butter which is manufactured within the State. And we have the power to prevent imitation butter, wherever it is manufactured, from being colored to imitate the real article. It is for the Legislature, in its discretion, to determine whether we shall stop where we are. The dairy interests of our State are of great importance. In my report of last year, short accounts were given of the herds and business of a few of the dairymen of the State. The following are along the same line, giving an account of other Dairymen of the State and their herds. These are given as was stated last year, with the hope that the interest in dairying and cattle breeding will be a growing one in the State. RECORD OF THE STORRS AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE HERD From Sept. 1, 1897, to Sept. 1, 1898. In studying the record of this herd, it must be born in mind that these cows are treated as individuals, and that we are not conducting a breed test. The number of animals is too small to warrant us drawing any conclusion from the record as to the best breed for butter or milk. But it is interesting to note that the good and poor...
