Tara Phillips Consulting, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Have you ever been dissatisfied with a romantic relationship? Many women find themselves in relationships that are unfulfilling. We think that this is just the price we have to pay to be in a relationship. You try to make it work, but your effort alone is not all that s required. You may begin to question yourself. Am I lovable? What is it about me that makes me unable to have a good relationship? Self-esteem plummets and you may begin to believe that this unfulfilling relationship is all that you deserve. Women already wear so many hats and have so many responsibilities. We are never without media or society pushing us to do more with less time. That romantic relationship that is not working could have been the soft place to land, that you believe you need. But there is no soft place to land, your guy is distant. He doesn t call that much or spend much time with you. You also notice that he doesn t talk much about what is going on with him. Do you even have a relationship? You wonder, but every time you ask about the relationship he gets upset and says Don t start that again. You want him to stay so you learn to be quiet and just accept what time he gives to you. Has your relationship been reduced to sex only? In the beginning, there were dates and laughs and joys, but lately you feel ignored and definitely unloved. You want it to work so you try different things to keep him interested. But it only appears to work for a period of time, then the...
