Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Classic Greek Literature - Euthyphro By Plato - A commentary for intermediate students. Euthyphro is one of Plato's early dialogues, dated to after 399 BC. Taking place during the weeks leading up to Socrates' trial, the dialogue features Socrates and Euthyphro, a religious expert attempting to define piety or holiness. In the Meno, Anytus had parted from Socrates with the significant words: That in any city, and particularly in the city of Athens, it is easier to do men harm than to do them good; and Socrates was anticipating another opportunity of talking with him. In the Euthyphro, Socrates is awaiting his trial for impiety. But before the trial begins, Plato would like to put the world on their trial, and convince them of ignorance in that very matter touching which Socrates is accused. An incident which may perhaps really have occurred in the family of Euthyphro, a learned Athenian diviner and soothsayer, furnishes the occasion of the discussion. This Euthyphro and Socrates are represented as meeting in the porch of the King Archon....
