John O'Neill: President of the Fenian Brotherhood; On the Attempt to Invade Canada, May 25th, 1870 On the attempt to invade Canada, May 25th, 1870, the preparations therefor, and the cause of its failure, with a sketch of his connection with the Organization, and the motives which led him to join it. In Jail At Burlington, VT., June 25th, 1870. To the Officers and members of the Fenian Brotherhood, and the friends of Irish liberty generally: Gentlemen: - Since I last had the honor to address you, an important event in the history of the Organization has occurred: and judging from the general tenor of newspaper reports, the man whom you then most trusted, has, for the time, lost your confidence. While I may be grieved at this, still, conscious of having performed my whole duty as far as in me lay, I have nothing to regret in the past, excepting that those whose co-operation I had looked for, so utterly failed to keep their solemn pledges. Whatever I have...
